Our Environnemental Commitments

Download our charter

Thank you for choosing Le Vieux Moulin in HEDE-BAZOUGES. Located in a very bucolic setting and listed as NATURA 2000, we have always been concerned about our environment and the impact our activities may have on it.
For this reason, we have developed a charter called TOGETHER FOR MORE VIRTUOUS TOURISM to set simple objectives to contribute to the implementation of our environmental values and quantify the results of our actions.
Our commitment is such that we have decided to pursue an eco-label certification for 2026 called CLE VERTE. We thank you for helping us fulfill our commitments and participate in more sustainable tourism.

Please remember to recycle during your stay by using the recycling bins located in the reception hallway. Glass should be left at the bar before your departure. Thank you for your efforts.

As part of our environmental commitments, we encourage you to place used towels in the bathtub or shower only when you would like them replaced.
For stays of three days or more, please let us know if you would like your sheets changed. Without your prior notice, and as part of our sustainable environmental approach, they will not be changed.

Our approach is obviously perfectible, but the goodwill is there. Please feel free to share your comments and suggestions with us.

The site of the 11 locks at La Madeleine, the highest elevation of the Ille et Rance Canal. It's absolutely perfect for a walk or bike ride along the towpath. For a family day out, we also recommend visiting the Château de la Bourbansais and its animal park in Pleugueneuc, which offers activities such as a hunting dog show, a bird of prey show, and more.

DINAN

Do you love old stone buildings? Dinan, a medieval town, is not very far away (about 30 minutes) with its viaduct and small port. This town, where Anne of Brittany resided, will delight young and old alike with its half-timbered houses and cobbled roads full of history.

LE MONT SAINT- MICHEL

More history: Don't miss a visit to Mont Saint-Michel. Located 45 minutes from our hotel, one of the most visited sites in the world awaits you. Tip: For your peace of mind, leave early in the morning or you'll be caught up in the bus tours.

COMBOURG

Why not visit the small village of Bécherel, France's litterature’s village? Booksellers and artists happily rub shoulders in the narrow alleys of this very friendly village.
